

VEGETABLE SEED SAVING WORKSHOP

Practical workshop on how to save your own vegetable seeds.

- The various pollination methods and levels of cross pollination of different vegetables.
- What plant varieties are the easiest to save seeds from.
- Seed storage life.
- Practical demonstrations of the different methods of saving seed.
- Seed collecting equipment.
- Labelling and packaging of seeds.
- Practical session where participants collect and save their own seeds.

WHEN Sunday 24th March at 1:30 PM

WHERE 104 Crompton Street Soldiers Hill.

DURATION The workshop will run for approximately two hours.

COST $45 (Includes at least four packets of seeds)

Maximum of 16 people in the group. Bookings are essential!

To book email John at urbanfoodgarden2@gmail.com

For more information phone 0428 157 618.

Further details will be sent upon booking.